Claim Objections

1. Claim 11 is objected to because of the following informalities: "Use of" should be changed to –The method of use of–. Appropriate correction is required.

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 1-5, 7, 9-15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Rester 3,630,010.

Rester discloses a wheel-mounted lawnmower wherein the use of the lawnmower is inherent, comprising:

A cutting device (66) connected to a motor (22);

An operating device (18) for operating the lawnmower;

Wherein the lawnmower has a first unit (64) which is provided with the cutting device (66) and the motor (22), and a second unit (10) which has at least two rotatable wheels (16, 20) for moving the lawnmower relative to a base and connected to the operating device (18), a wheel frame (also 10) for arranging the wheels (16, 20) and for arranging the operating device (18) on the wheel frame (10), wherein the first unit (64) is suspended from the second unit (10) by at least two insulators (76) to reduce vibrations between the units;

Wherein the first unit (64) includes a frame (also 64) for attaching the cutting device (66) and the motor (22);

Wherein the first unit (64) has a protective cover (also 64) which at least partially surrounds the cutting device (66);

In which a body (also 64) is included in the first unit (64);

In which the operating device (18) is at least one operating rod (handle grip portion) which is connected to the wheel frame (10);

Wherein the insulators (76) are attached to the wheel frame (10);

Wherein the two insulators (76) are an elastomeric material (see column 2, lines 65-66) or springs (shown in the embodiment in the drawings).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 6 and 8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Rester in view of Scheid DE 3145337, as cited by applicant.

The device is disclosed as applied above. However, Rester fails to disclose a hand steered mower in which the operating device in its longitudinal direction is divided into at least two pieces which are connected at least partially by a damping element to reduce vibrations from the second unit to the handle portion of the operating device; and

In which the operating device is L-shaped with a first end having a handle portion and a second end connectable to the wheels of the lawnmower.

Scheid discloses a hand steered mower in which the operating device (11) in its longitudinal direction is divided into at least two pieces which are connected at least partially by a damping element (21) to reduce vibrations from the second unit (12) to the handle portion (horizontal section of handle 11) of the operating device (11); and

In which the operating device (11) is L-shaped with a first end having a handle portion (horizontal section) and a second end connectable to the wheels of the lawnmower.

It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to include the damping element in the handle as taught by Scheid's hand steered mower on an insulated mower like that of Rester in order to reduce vibrations to an operator steering the mower.

Response to Arguments

5. Applicant's arguments with respect to the claims have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

6. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO

Art Unit: 3671

MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
